IASTA

National Conference 2026

Welcome to the IASTA-2026

IASTA-2026 aims to provide a platform for aerosol researchers, technologists, policymakers, industry professionals, and students to present their work, exchange ideas, and discuss recent advances in aerosol science and technology. The conference will foster interactions and collaborations that contribute to the growth of aerosol science and technology in India. IASTA-2026 will also offer industries an opportunity to showcase their products and innovations while engaging with the research community. We look forward to welcoming you to the IIT Kharagpur Research Park, Kolkata, for an enriching and rewarding conference.

Scope of the Conference

- Aerosol Chemistry and Physics
- Aerosol Technology
- Aerosol Instrumentation and Measurement Techniques
- Aerosol Characterization and Composition
- Aerosol–Climate Interactions and Meteorology
- Aerosol Sources and Transboundary Transport
- Indoor Air Quality and Urban Aerosol Studies
- Nanoparticles
- Nuclear and Radioactive Aerosols
- Aerosol Exposure, Ambient Air Quality and Health Effects
- Emission Inventories and Mitigation Strategies
- Bioaerosols
- Advances in Aerosol Data Analytics

The conference will feature workshop sessions and panel discussions, plenary lectures, oral and poster presentations, and a technical exhibition showcasing products, systems, and technologies related to aerosol science, research, and allied fields.

Stalls & Exhibitions

A technical exhibition featuring state-of-the-art aerosol instrumentation by leading vendors will be held during the conference. For details regarding exhibition stalls and participation, please contact the conference organizers.
